

Eve

Trigger

---

Apple Tower

Material

- A bag of apples
- Bowl

Steps

1. Ask two children to come to the front of the group and place them behind a table.
2. Place a dish filled with apples on the table.
3. On your signal, tell them to create a tower with as many apples as possible.
4. Give them a minute to run.
5. The winner is the one who will have made the highest tower.
6. Repeat as many times as you like.
7. Tell the children that the story of the day is about a forbidden fruit.

God Did

Material

- A girl doll
- A boy doll

Steps

1. Show the dolls that represent Adam and Eve.
2. Recite and mime the rhyme. Encourage the children to do the gestures with you.

Nursery Rhyme

- God made the mountains and trees very high
(Stand on tiptoe and spread your arms upwards, then lower them into a semicircle on each side of the body.)
- God made flowers and all the little birds
(Crouch down and place your right hand close to the ground as if to show something small.)
- God made the animals you see
(Place your hands folded at your wrists as if to imitate a rabbit.)
- And God made people like you and me
(Point up, point to the children, then to you.)

The Heart of the Father

& Prayer

Like Adam, who was the first son, Eve was the first daughter. When we think of Eve, we often think of the wrong choice she made by eating forbidden fruit in the Garden of Eden. It is true that she made a bad choice, but she suffered the consequences of her bad choice. But she did not only make bad choices in her life. She was also created in the image of God just like you and me, and she also carries the life of Christ in her. Despite disobeying God.

In our lives, it happens to all of us that we choose to disobey God. That is not right. Disobedience often comes with consequences and discipline. But does God the Father love us less? Not at all. And he proved it to us by sending us Jesus who came to die on the cross so that our mistakes, our faults and our sins would be forgiven and so we could always have access to the HEART of the FATHER. Not because we are good, fine and kind, but simply because he loves us and because Jesus paid the price with his life so that we could have access to his love at all times, even when we disobey. His love is still there to forgive us and help us not to do it again.

Prayer

“Father, if there are things in my life that take me away from your heart and prevent me from receiving your love and feeling it, I ask for forgiveness. Jesus, come and wash my heart of all that takes me away from the Heart of the Father. I want to love you more and more and live in your love. In the name of Jesus. Amen.”

Application: The father loves me

1. Draw a big heart on a cardboard box on the wall.
2. Ask the children what keeps them away from the father’s heart and write their answer outside the heart.
3. Ask the children what brings them closer to the father’s heart. Write their response inside the heart.

Craft

Butterfly Pinch

Material

- Clothespins
- Glitter
- Paint
- Glue
- White paper or template (attachment)
- Scissors
- Markers

Steps

1. Ask the children to cut wings in white paper or have the model printed and cut out.
2. Ask them to place a clothespin in the center of the wings. It will become the body of the butterfly.
3. Then ask them to paint patterns on the wings and on the clothespin.
4. Ask them to use markers to add details.
5. Ask them to add glitter for the final touch.
